

Sweatshirts and hoodies can have a Cannon or college name and logo, or school appropriate image as long as there is NO writing.

Collared shirts are encouraged and are plain or have a logo smaller than a Cougar Paw.

Shirts are without writing and must provide adequate coverage. Tops should be no more than 3" from the collar line.

Sleeveless blouses or dresses are permitted. No halter tops or spaghetti straps are permitted. Tops should be no more than 3" from the collar line. Both should provide adequate coverage.

Shorts should provide adequate coverage and be free of holes. No gym shorts or sweatshorts are permitted.

Pants or jeans should be free of rips, tears, or holes.

No leggings, sweatpants, windpants, or yoga pants are permitted.

Dress tops should be no more than 3" from the collarline and should provide adequate coverage. (Strapless dresses are not permitted.)

Skirts and dresses must provide adequate coverage, allow for freedom of movement, and be free of rips, tears, or holes.

Cannon Middle School Style Guide

The purpose of Cannon School's Style Guide is to promote professionalism, respect, positive self-image, and to show school spirit. Students should come to school dressed for learning, looking professional, respectful, neat, and modest.

Hats and hoods may not be worn.

Cannon and college T-shirts are permitted.

Shoes must be suitable for school, recess, and climbing stairs. No flip-flops, Crocs or slides permitted.

Consequences will follow the discipline pathway listed in the Middle School Handbook.

Additional details are available in the full MS Handbook.